New Goods—and Cheap!

At Glazier's, west end the Square, has been received a new lot of latest styles hats, prints, woolen goods, &c. A handsome lot of summer shawls just opened. Ladies' hose (iron frame) 12 1/2c per pair. Other goods in proportion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

TAKE your wool to Russell's. SEE advertisement of N.Y. Life Ins. Co. BECKMAN sells 4 pounds of coffee for a dollar.

THE little shower of rain Saturday afternoon was good for sore eyes.

TAKE your wool to Russell and get a good price in cash or cheap goods.

NEW and complete stock of Buell's wooleas just received at Russell's. Prices low.

THE American Sardine Co.'s boneless sardines are much better, and less than half the cost of imported sardines.

BIRCH CARPENTER has been elected President of a base ball club in St. Joe, composed mostly of printers—the Alerts.

GROCERIES, dry goods, parasols, dress goods, &c., are selling at Russell's brown front south side store at bottom prices.

ATTENTION is called to the comparison of sales of sewing machines in the Singer advertisement, in our advertising columns.

THE scholars of Mr. F. C. Matteson's school-room were treated to a picnic by their teacher, on Saturday last, in a grove east of town.

ON Monday night a rain fell in this vicinity which wet the ground down about an inch. Ten times the amount would have done no harm.

WE are requested by Mr. Woodcock to state that the item of "Rattling Jack," last week, in reference to a "spirit" excitement, was without foundation except in the correspondent's imagination.

ONLY two dollars will purchase an annual membership in the Andrew County Library Association—a privilege worth fifty dollars or more to any one who will properly appreciate and improve it.

W. W. BOOHER, Esq., who was in Rochester and Monroe townships last Saturday, informs us that the wheat looks farm from excellent, the drouth or some other cause having affected it seriously.

THE Rochester Cheese Factory, we learn, is all ready for operations with the exception of a good supply of water. The well has reached a depth of seventy feet without a sufficient supply. It is proposed pumping from the river temporarily.

WALL PAPER, the finest stock ever brought to this city, will be found at J. G. Walker's, north side the Square; also, a full supply of paints, oils, glass, &c., constantly on hand; all of which will be sold cheaper than the cheapest. Call and see.

STILES & HARDY ain't got any money to loan, nor ain't rich enough to sell goods on credit; but they can do the other thing, viz: to-wit, namely: they can and do sell goods very low, and say they can afford to sell goods lower for cash than anybody can on credit.

NOTICE is given to the public generally that John J. Miller, northeast of the Square, has received a large and complete supply of spring goods—latest styles—consisting of ready-made clothing, hats, caps, boots and shoes, gent's furnishing goods, &c. Call and examine goods and prices before buying elsewhere.

WE are under obligations to Mr. Joseph Austin for a box of delicious strawberries. From him we learn that the recent drouth has almost ruined the strawberry crop, and prices will likely continue high till the close of the season. Those who like good things should buy of him while the opportunity is presented.

WE have given Master Rogers a chance to test his skill at caning chairs, and he has given us complete satisfaction. He has worked in regular establishments, and his handiwork is as well done as any we every saw. Those who have chairs which need re-caning should leave word at Dr. Davenport's residence, in this city, and their orders will receive prompt attention.

THIS week Benjamin Craig conveyed to Richard Fisher eighty acres of improved prairie land, being the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 17, township, 61, Range 33, for $1,300.

STILES & HARDY ain't got any money to loan, nor ain't rich enough to sell goods on credit; but they can do the other thing, viz: to-wit, namely: they can and do sell goods very low, and say they can afford to sell goods lower for cash than anybody can on credit.

IF the person who took a door-key off my desk in the express office last Monday morning, June 1st, will return the same and leave it where he got it, no questions will be asked, but will confer a favor. J. R. WATTS.

AT four o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, David Turner, son of Samuel and Elizabeth Turner, died at the residence of his parents in Andrew county, on the St. Joseph road, about seven miles from this city.

WALKER says farmers ought to be fined for allowing their wagon loads of corn to stand for hours in the streets, as it is dangerous to the city crows! His cow has come near foundering several times.

WOOL wanted by J. B. Russell, who will pay the highest cash price in cash or goods low down.

RUSSELL has just received a new supply of dry goods and groceries.

TWENTY bars of Kirk soap for a dollar at Beckman's.

NEW goods at Russell's.

SHALL we celebrate?

FISHING.

A Party of Young Folks in Pursuit of Pleasure.

WE are informed of a dozen couple of young ladies and gentlemen of this vicinity who propose to take a pleasure trip to that delightful summer retreat, Lake Contrary, Buchanan county, four miles below St. Joseph, to-morrow (Saturday.) As near as we can learn, the following compose the party:

R. A. Morris,	Miss Bell Phillips,
A. B. Slack,	"Maud Couch,
A. W. Madden,	"E. McCandless,

THE GREAT RUSH!

Savannah Meat Market Jammed!

THE rush is now to Howard's Savannah Meat Market, south side the Square, for the choicest steaks, roasts, &c., at low rates. The new store is a perfect model of its kind, and the neatness and freshness with which everything is kept, together with the cheap rates and good weight, which rule at Howard's have caused a "rush" which will likely continue as long as Howard keeps a meat market. If you have not called on him yet, do so at once, or you will always regret it.

New Books and New Library.

THE members of the Andrew County Library Association will be pleased to learn that a new purchase of books—all late publications—have just been received and placed in the library. The services of Mr. James A. Howard have been secured as librarian, and all members desiring to obtain books, or to return those they are charged with, can feel assured that hereafter they will find the library open promptly every Saturday afternoon. Books are out which should have been returned weeks ago; therefore the managing board do hereby respectfully request the early return of all books belonging to the library, and earnestly urge a strict adherence by all members, to the rules of the Association in the future.

A Bold Game That Didn't Win.

ON Thursday morning of last week, one William Jones hired a horse of Buis Brothers, of this city, to go to Rochester, promising to return by 2 o'clock. He did not return. At 9 o'clock Dick Buis and Phil. Brant left for St. Joe, where they arrived in an hour and a half. They promptly communicated the facts to the police, and at 1 o'clock the same night Jones was arrested and in jail. Jones had attempted to sell the horse in St. Joe, but failing, left the animal at Couch's stable and went to bed, where he was captured. The horse was recovered. This was quick work.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Pleasant Exercises Friday Night.

ON Friday evening, May 29, an informal exhibition by the scholars of the departments of Misses Tatlock, Buckley and Morris, and Messrs. Honnold, Matteson and Wilkerson, of our Public School, was given, under the superintendence of Mr. Matteson, which was really an entertainment of a high order of merit. The children all spoke plainly and correctly, giving the appropriate gestures and emphasis, from the good-sized schoolboy to the diminutive five-year-old girl. Not a serious blunder or error was committed. The following is the programme:

1. Song, "Greeting," by the school.
2. Select reading, "Universal Prayer," by J. G. Honnold.
3. "Welcome," by Wamie Terrell.
4. "Grandpa's Spectacles," by Effie Greenlee.
5. "The Seasons," by Lizzie Ford, Emma Howard, Bertie Pinkerton and Addie Overton.
6. "Johnnie on Grandmothers," by Claudie Small.
7. "Children's Wishes," by Lizzie Walker, Clarence Phillips, Minnie Edwards, Willie Clabby, Hattie Howard and Wamie Terrell.
8. "The Infidel and Child," by Allie Dobbins.
9. "The Tea Party," by Katie Garrett.
10. "I'm a Wee Lassie," by Minnie Edwards.
11. "The Frenchman and His Lesson," by Charlie Price and Johnnie Earls.
12. "The Spoiled Child," by Medie Nelson.
13. "Mother's Fool," by Cora Garrett.
14. "How Bread is Made," by Medie Nelson, Olga Clark, Nora Earles, Maggie Thurman, Flora Buis, Opha Hutchinson and Katie Garrett.
15. "School Has Begun," by Millie Wakefield.
16. "I wish I was an Editor," by Charlie Price.
17. "Don't be in a Hurry to Go," by Lena Auble.
18. "Pat and the Lawyer," by Eli Joy and Emory Overton.
19. "The Bird's Complaint," by Lillie Honnold.
20. "The Pebble," by Lizzie Ford.
21. "Sunday at the Dobbins's," by Mamie Hale, Florence Shackelford, Alice Williams and Lillie Buskirk.
22. "Only a Beggar," by Anna Billiter.
23. "Onward," by Willie Majors.
24. "The Retort," by Lillie Buskirk.
25. "The Rival Speakers," by Emory Overton and Willie Majors.
26. Song, "Good Night," by the school.

Pianos and Organs.

QUITE frequently, parties desire to buy musical instruments, when they are deterred from so doing by the fact that it is not convenient to raise at once from $200 to $1,000 cash. To overcome this difficulty and place first class musical instruments within the reach of all, Mr. Powell Crosby, 424 Francis street, St. Joseph, Mo., has adopted the plan of selling on easy monthly payments. And when we take into account the fact that he deals in such instruments as E. P. Medham & Son's "Silver Tongue" organs, and Emerson's piano, people may rest assured that he means business. None can do better than to correspond with Mr. Crosby before purchasing.

Warning to Old Widowers Who Contemplate Marriage.

IT will be remembered by many that two years ago, on the 28th of May, the wife of Moses Wilson, near Rosendale, gave birth to three children—triplets. Mr. Wilson is only in his fifty-fourth year, yet he is as proud of his "luck" as if he was only the third of it. Two of the babes are still living, and on Wednesday of last week a number of the friends of the family made them a visit, bringing presents to the little ones and the parents. Among the donors, we may mention the Misses Wilhelms, Mrs. Speer, and others. Old widowers who don't want their friends to assist them in keeping a family should learn a lesson from this.

Runaways.

ABOUT noon on Friday, a team attached to a wagon, in which was an old man, Mr. Stigler, and his young son, started southward from the mill, and made things rattle lively for a while. The boy fell out, bruising himself severely about the face. Mr. Stigler remained in the wagon, and seemed to be severely hurt by being thrown forward over the front seat. The team was stopped opposite the hotel.

ON Saturday two more runaways occurred, doing no injury of any kind, however.

Keep Cool.

THOSE who wish ice delivered regularly at their residence or place of business, should leave orders with J. L. Bennett, who will deliver in the city throughout the summer in quantities to suit and at a low rate.

SERVICES will be held at the Episcopal Church in this city, on Sunday next, conducted by Rev. Dr. Runcie, of Christ Church, St. Joseph.

DECORATION DAY.

Good Turn Out and Interesting Ceremonies Last Saturday.

SATURDAY, May 30, was ushered in by the firing of four rounds of artillery (one for each year of the war), and the displaying of flags at half-mast. The Court-house was neatly trimmed with evergreens and flag. At 2 o'clock the fine music from Dugan's Cornet Band assembled a large number of men, women and children to take part in the ceremonies. We have never seen a more general interest taken in Decoration Day than on Saturday; and it is in the highest degree pleasant to notice the fact that the memories of our fallen comrades and patriots live as green in the hearts of the people to-day as they did the year after the close of the war.

THE meeting was called to order by the statement of the object of the meeting by the Chairman, Captain Pembroke Mercer, with a few well timed remarks.

THE following exercises at the Court-house were then had: Prayer by Rev. J. Gillies, singing by choir; oration by Captain J. A. Sanders (found in full in our supplement); music by the band; a few remarks in lieu of an oration by Hon. A. J. Harlan; reading of poem "Cover Them Over," by J. G. Honnold; singing by the choir; oration by W. W. Caldwell, Esq. (also found in full in supplement); music by the band; prayer by Rev. H. G. Pollock.

AFTER which a procession was formed, which proceeded to the cemetery, where the resting-places of the country's defenders were profusely scattered with flowers.

BLOODED CATTLE.

J. M. Kenyon Adds a Fine Animal to His Herd.

J. M. Kenyon, Esq., of Fillmore, has just returned from a trip through Illinois, where he has been prospecting for a thorough-bred short-horn bull to lead his herd of thorough-bred cows, having succeeded in securing from the herd of Colonel William S. King, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, a very fine young animal, "The Marquis of Oakwood," got by the Marquis of Geneva out of Medora Eighth. He was two years old April 22, weighs 1,710 pounds, and is of the Gwynne family of short-horns, which bids fair to rival the Duchesse in popularity. Among short-horn breeders, cows of this family sold as high as $2,500, at the sale of Mr. Parks, of Waukegan, Illinois, on the 20th of last month. Colonel King, of Minneapolis, took his entire herd of short-horns to Chicago, and sold them at auction on the 21st of last month. The sale had been advertised, and a large number of short-horn breeders from all parts of the United States and Canada were in attendance. His herd has been one of the most noted on the continent. The average price realized for cows was about $1,700, and for bulls a little over $1,200. There were 80 head sold altogether.

Personal.

REV. Mr. Eickbaum, of the Episcopal Church, we learn, will arrive in the city about the 16th instant (next Tuesday) to take charge of St. Mary's Mission.

MR. Philip Alyn, who has been absent in Buffalo, New York, for some ten or twelve weeks in the cattle business, has returned to Rochester.

BENJ. Petree renders us under obligations for California papers containing the account of the capture of Vasquez, a Mexican desperado, who has been a terror to the community there for a long time. The State has spent $15,000 for the capture of Vasquez and party—$8,000 for Vasquez alone.

WE were pleased to see the faces of Judge Bond and Major Bracey of Amazonia, in our spectrum, on Tuesday. Amazonia, they say still holds its own.

H. H. Dobbins returned from St. Louis on Tuesday, where he represented the Presbyterian congregation of this city in the General Assembly.

I. N. Webster, Esq., gave us a couple of Colorado papers, from which it appears that the mines there are getting under headway again, with fair auspices generally. John Hobson's mine is favorably spoken of as one of the best.

WE notice Messrs. W. C. Smith, Bennett Pike, J. W. Strong, J. M. Stewart, of St. Joseph, and C. F. Booher, E. Myers and F. Knickerbacker, of our own county, in attendance on Circuit Court this week.

Chambers' Cyclopaedia.

THIS is the most complete work of the kind of the age, being a complete compendium of knowledge, of whatever branch. It embraces in its list of contributors the most eminent scientists and philosophers, is elegantly printed and compactly bound; and, in short, is just such a work as has long been needed. For information, apply to James Love, Liberty, Clay county, Mo.
